Following an investigation by the division and the division's recommendation of a determination of unsuitability, the person shall have a right to appeal such division recommendation to a hearing officer conducted in accordance with the provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act as provided in R.S. 27:25 and 26. Any appeal of the recommendation for a determination of unsuitability shall be filed with the hearing officer within ten days of receipt of the notice of a recommendation for a determination of unsuitability. The appeal shall be heard by the hearing officer within thirty days, except upon good cause shown.

(3)(a) If a person who may exercise a significant influence over a licensee, the casino gaming operator, or a permittee, and is required to be suitable pursuant to the provisions of this Title is determined by the board to be unsuitable, no administrative action shall be taken against the licensee, permittee, or casino gaming operator subject to the influence of the person based upon its association with the person, unless such licensee, permittee, or casino gaming operator refuses to sever its association with the person determined to be unsuitable within ten days notice served by the board on the licensee, permittee, or casino gaming operator demanding such action.

(b) Such demand shall not be served upon such licensee, permittee, or casino gaming operator until such time as a determination of unsuitability has been made final, either because the person failed to request an appeal from the decision of the hearing officer finding him unsuitable, or a final decision has been rendered by the board determining such person to be unsuitable.

(c) If a stay of the board decision is granted on appeal to the district court, such stay shall not exceed sixty days from the date of the board's decision. The district court shall grant an expedited review of these proceedings, and shall consider such appeal with preference.

"§310. Suitability requirements

B.(1) No person shall be granted a license under the provisions of this Chapter unless the applicant has demonstrated to the division that he is suitable for licensing. For purposes of this Chapter, suitability means the applicant or licensee is:

(b) A Subject to the provisions of Paragraph (2) of this Subsection, a person whose prior activities, arrest or criminal record if any, reputation, prior activities, habits, and associations do not pose a threat to the public interest of this state or to the effective regulation of video draw poker, and do not create or enhance the dangers of unsuitable, unfair, or illegal practices, methods, and operations in the activities authorized by this Chapter and financial arrangements incidental thereto.

(2)(a) An applicant who is not disqualified from making application or licensure as a result of Subsection A of this Section shall still be required to demonstrate to the division that he otherwise meets the remaining requirements for suitability, particularly those contained in Subparagraphs (1)(a), (b), and (c) of this Subsection.

(b) Evidence of or relating to an arrest, summons, charge, or indictment of an applicant, or the dismissal thereof, shall may be considered by the division even if the arrest, summons, charge, or indictment results in acquittal, deferred adjudication, probation, parole, or pardon; however an arrest, summons, charge, or indictment which does not result in a conviction or which results in an acquittal, deferred adjudication, or pardon shall not be the sole basis of a denial of a license or permit when an applicant is otherwise suitable as provided for by the provisions of this Chapter.

(c) A conviction of a misdemeanor offense, except those offenses enumerated in Subsection A of this Section, shall not be the sole basis of a denial of a license or permit when an applicant is otherwise suitable as provided for by the provisions of this Chapter.

H.(1) The general manager, the president, and treasurer of a country or community club which meets all requirements for licensure, under the provisions of this Chapter, shall be the only persons required to meet the suitability requirements of this Chapter.

(2) Nothing in Paragraph (1) of this Subsection shall preclude the investigation of any other individual who, in the opinion of the board or division, has the ability to exercise significant influence on the operation of or decisions made with regard to the country or community club.
